Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the Universal King and the end of the Church year. Everything is summed up in Christ triumphant, the alpha and the omega (the A-Z in our alphabet); the beginning and the end. Today we celebrate our faith in Christ risen from the dead present amongst us as ruler of all. If you have chance you could, perhaps, reflect on the words of the hymn 'The Servant King', No 267 in our hymn books, as you prepare for Mass today and 'let us learn how to serve'.

MURDER MYSTERY REVISITED there will be an evening of viewing the camcorder footage from the Murder Mystery Event, on Tuesday 27th Nov at 7.00 pm in the Parish Centre. An opportunity for all who couldn't make it on the evening and for the cast and those who want to relive a great night. Pie and pea supper. To cover the cost of the supper tickets are £1.50 and are available at the back of Church today, or pay at the door on the evening.

Taizè Evening will be taking place this Friday the 30th November and will have a distinctly Advent theme. This is a beautiful candle lit, quiet prayerful time which begins at 7.00 pm (in church) and will last for an hour. All welcome!
